Antidiscrimination Statement

It is the policy of the Cornell Law Review to support equality of opportunity. No person shall be denied membership in the Cornell Law Review or participation in any of its activities, including publication, on the basis of any legally prohibited discrimination involving, but not limited to, such factors including race, color, creed, religion, national or ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability. To improve the overall quality of its publication, the Cornell Law Review hopes to expand its membership to include persons from traditionally underrepresented groups, as well as persons with diverse viewpoints. Sexual harassment is an act of discrimination and, as such, will not be tolerated.

Permission

The Cornell Law Review hereby grants permission to nonprofit organizations to reproduce and distribute the contents of this journal, in whole or in part, for educational purposes, including distribution to students, provided that the copies are distributed at or below cost and identify the author, the Cornell Law Review, the volume, the number of the first page of the article, and the year of publication.

All other inquiries for permission should be sent to the attention of the Editor-in-Chief.

Publication Information

This journal is published six times annually, in November, January, March, May, July, and September at Lincoln, Nebraska, by the Cornell Law Review (ISSN 0010-8847). Periodicals postage is paid at Ithaca, New York, and additional mailing offices. Office of Publication: Cornell Law School, 127 Myron Taylor Hall, Ithaca, New York 14853. DEDICATION
Susan Green Pado

In Recognition of Thirty Years of Service to the Cornell Law Review
Volumes 72–102

We would like to dedicate this volume of the Cornell Law Review to Susan Green Pado. As the administrative assistant to the Law Review for thirty years, Sue has been a vital part of the Law Review. Indeed, she is truly the heartbeat of this publication and its membership. Between her tremendous patience and kindness during the transition to new members and her diligent and careful review of our work, Sue has been an invaluable source of guidance and support that has allowed the Law Review to publish high-quality legal scholarship. We are tremendously grateful for having the opportunity to work with Sue. She treats us all like family, and she will always be a part of ours. Sue—Volume 102 is for you.
